ABOUT NOVA

All good stories start somewhere, and ours aligned from a shared love of exquisite design-led weddings for creative down to, earth couples.

Each of us brings a unique perspective from our collective twelve years in the wedding and events industry. Emma is the founder of Emma Jordan Weddings, an award-winning contemporary wedding planning and design business. Amy owns boldly bespoke Muscari Events, an imaginative wedding floral designer for modern couples.

From late-night conversations at our headquarters in North Shields, the idea began to bring our combined knowledge and expertise together. To offer a one-of-a-kind, never been seen before-wedding planning experience.

This is where Nova begins.
